Defendant, who was [serving a direct sentence to a community corrections program][transitioning from the department of corrections to a community corrections program or placed in an intensive supervision program][participating in a work release or home detention program, intensive supervision program, or any other similar authorized supervised or unsupervised absence from a detention facility][housed in a staff secure facility], unlawfully, feloniously, and knowingly, [left or failed to return to his or her residential or facility location without permission of the supervising agency and in violation of the terms and conditions of supervision][removed or tampered with an electronic monitoring device required to be worn by the person in order to monitor his or her location, without permission and with the intent to avoid arrest, prosecution, monitoring or other legal process]. Further, the defendant knowingly violated a permanent or temporary protection order during the commission of the unauthorized absence in violation of sections 18-8-208.2(1),(2)(c)

NOTE: Since most cases that involve a VPO are also VRA crimes, we suggest filing both this F3 charge, as well as the F6 Agg Unauthorized Absence for a VRA or COV crime. That way both versions of aggravation are available in case the VPO cannot be proven. The two theories of the crime will necessarily merge for purposes of sentencing if convictions are had on both. "This crime was signed into law on 3/6/20. However, due to case law from the court of appeals the effective date has been moved back to allow for retroactive application to cases still unresolved at the time HB 20-1019 was passed and signed into law. Be sure to confirm the status of People v. Pennington, 2021 COA 9 and People v. Gregory, 2020 COA 162 prior to charging this offense for a crime committed prior to 3/6/20
