Misdemeanor Prosecution Skills is a carefully arranged five day seminar designed for prosecuting attorneys with less than six months of experience. Under the advice and guidance of distinguished faculty, attendees will simulate the prosecution, from first-review to trial, of two mock county court cases: a DV case and a DUI case.

This course was formerly known as "Trial Techniques School"

Register online by March 20th via the CDAC training calendar or by following this link: Register Here

Invoices will be issued upon the completion of the training.

Cancellation must be submitted in writing by March 27th.
Late cancellation or no-show may result in a $50 fee.
